BANK

Banking that GROWS with you

As Illinois's oldest law firm, Brown, Hay & Stephens, LLP has experienced tremendous change in its 187-year history. As our attorney ranks have increased to more than thirty, so has the number of practice areas in which we are regularly involved. To maintain long-standing business relationships, it is important for our firm to grow along with our clients as they require more varied legal expertise. Similarly, United Community Bank has experienced tremendous growth and diversification over the past decades. UCB's advanced operational technology provides its customers access to the latest of the industry's ever-evolving services along with locally-based management. United Community Bank and Brown, Hay, & Stephens share deep roots in our community, and we look forward to working with UCB in continuing that tradition long into the future.
